with Sally

● This is Christmas time and we must all love our neighbors. And even now we might be loving them if John hadn't proved himself such an idiotic sentimentalist.

● We know these are strong words and we rather hope they are never brought to his attention. But if you could have seen him, standing in the middle of the kitchen floor, trying to glue false whiskers on to his chin with an egg white!!

● It all started innocently enough over an excellent Chinese dinner at the Hilltop Lodge, when Mrs. Sersonimo suddenly broke off talking in the middle of a sentence and looked at John.

● "Doesn't John look just like Santa Claus?" she inquired rapturously. "Wouldn't he make a perfectly divine Santa at our children's Christmas tree party?"

● John coughed on a noodle, brushed back the few sparse hairs he has on his head, and modestly declaimed that after all he didn't really look so much like Santa—

● "Oh, it will be easy," said Mrs. Sersonimo. "We have already bought the most heavenly tree from Lucca Ravioli company. They have the nicest trees this year. We bought some huge oranges there too. All you'll have to do, 'Santa,'" she ended coyly, "is to dress up in a nice red suit and bring a pack for the children!"

● Our wifely intuition told us that John was already picturing himself as a jolly old saint, magnificently destributing presents to trusting children. (John was in at Henry Warshawski's the other day really going to town, buying gifts, not that we blame him because Warshawski has a really wonderful selection, but ever since then he has been secretly longing for Christmas.)

● Mrs. Jones had taken up the conversation. "I know where we can get our candy," she said. "Westlake Market has a wonderful Christmas mix for 15c a pound—and they are offering a free round trip there and back on the new Daly City busses with every $2 purchase."

● "Well, hm-m," said John in a voice of weighty consideration.

● "Speaking of free things—" interrupted Mrs. Smith, "have you seen the list of prizes for the big whist party at Masonic temple Friday night?"

● "Why, yes," chimed in Mrs. Jones, "And did you know that the Night Owls are starting a jitterbug contest Saturday night at Lovchen Gardens? That should be fun."

● "And so will our Christmas tree party be fun," Mrs. Sersonimo reminded firmly. "I've ordered twelve quarts of milk from the Mission Creamery for hot chocolate for the children. It's so good for them, too. And you will be our own jolly Santa Claus, won't you, John?"

● And of course John would—strictly for the sake of the kiddies, you understand!

● So behold Sally, scarce one week later, surveying a tattered red Santa Claus suit which, in spite of the wonderful job the Beeson Cleaners had done with it, still looked very sad. It was all shot through with moth-holes and half of the fur was missing. When John climbed into it, the suit draped around him like a deflated parachute, even with the addition of every pillow in the house.

● Ah me. Bitter day. While John was regarding himself in the mirror, we discovered to our own horror that he had used a hand-embroidered pillowcase for his "pack." It was simply bulging with sweetmeats from Milo's. Gum drops, nuts, raisins (all bought at Milo's special pre-holiday sale) were stuck, alike, indiscriminately, to our one pure-linen pillowcase.

● And guess where he had hidden the little Chirstmas cookies he had bought from Geneva Bakery? In our brand new washing machine from Byrne Radio Store, which is the pride of our heart! Cookie crumbs were scattered all over the interior, like feathers in the breeze.

● We had no more than rescued our washing machine, when we returned to the kitchen to find the door to our new Frigidaire (bought on easy terms from A. M. Harrison) wide open. A thick, juicy steak from Farmers Meat Co. was dangling precariously from one of the shelves. Hastily retrieving it, we turned around to see John, for the first time in this wild affair looking slightly dampened and with something of the jolly Chirstmas spirit missing.

● And well he might. For, as we have said, there he stood, trying to glue false whiskers on to his chin with egg white. All the paste, it seemed, had turned up missing; but he had heard that egg white would work just as well.

● He was looking so doubtful and distressed that we didn't have the heart to point out to him that he had wasted three lovely fresh ranch eggs from Robertson's Egg store. Instead, we helped disentangle whiskers and egg white and husband, and then went in search of the paste.

● We didn't find the paste. But we did find that our beautiful poinsetta blossoms, which we had bought from the Daly City Nursery, had been suddenly and mysteriously cut down in their prime.

● We and our wailings fled back to the kitchen for comfort at this sudden and cruel disaster. And there John confessed, somewhat sheepishly, that he had always been under the impression that Santa Clauses carried bouquets of poinsettas because it was a Christmas flower, and so he—

● You would think that after this the scene could not grow darker. But it did. We stepped into the other room for just a moment, to inspect the beautiful trumpet we had bought at the Rowland Music company for Sammy, (see their ad on page 5 for Christmas suggestions), and when we stepped back into our own kitchen—

● It was the same kitchen—but you never would have known it. Everything was pure white, covered with a fine sifting of flour. And there was John, looking like a bulky, white ghost, happily shaking the last few clouds of flour from the special 10-pound bag we had bought from the Daly City Cut Rate Market for only 35c.

● "Makes good snow," he told us, giving a satisfied kick to the heap of flour which had drifted down around his feet.

● We tried to look catastrophe calmly in the face. We tried to remember that one hundred years from now it wouldn't matter. We tried to remember that this was Christmas time and we must love our neighbors.

● Aftermath: John also had his troubles. He came home from the party several hours later, very subdued, bringing us a huge box of flowers from the Tanforan Florist, but he didn't want to talk about the party.

● We learned later from other sources that the party had not been an unqualified success. Instead of coming in with bells ringing, an alarm clock in John's pack went off loudly just as he entered. This so unnerved him that he sneezed. And when he sneezed, his whiskers came off. And when his whiskers came off, all the children recognized him.

● All these harrowing events resulted in Santa's booming voice coming out as a mild, worried quaver, so that no one could hear his name called as the gifts were distributed. (Most of the presents were from Edwards Drug Store, and all joking aside, Edwards really has some lovely gifts.) And when people called "louder," John grew even more flustered. And then the rope that held up his pillows slipped, and pillows kept raining down all around Santa. And the flour left white footprints all over Mrs. Sersonimo's best rug.

● We do not think that John will be asked to play Santa Claus again. And we are reasonably sure that if he is asked, he will refuse.

Divorce in Canada

The steady increase of divorce in Canada is attracting the attention of sociologists and statisticians of the Dominion. The figures steadily mount. In 1918, there were only 114 divorces in all the country. In 1928, the figure had risen to 763 and in 1938, to 1,883.

Anticipate 2,000 Children at Party

Two thousand eager Daly City children, boisterously welcoming the Yuletide festivities, are expected to jam the Daly City theatre at the annual Christmas party, Monday afternoon. Enthusiastic committeemen, headed by the WPA Recreation department officials, have for weeks been working out details to assure the children a successful party. In addition to three hours of top-notch entertainment, including a thrilling movie, music and specialty numbers, the youngsters will each receive gifts of candy and fruit.

The Christmas theater party committee met in the council chambers of the City hall, Friday night, to make final arrangements for the children's party at the Daly City theater, December 18. The doors open at 1:45 and the show starts at 2 p. m.

Admission tickets will be distributed through the public and parochial schools, as a means of identification for Daly City children.

Daly City clubwomen are contacting every merchant for contributions to help make the party a success.

Members of the Fire department, Police department and civic clubs will be on hand to act as ushers and see that the children are properly seated. The Women's Civic club will present children with candy and fruit, as they leave the theater after the show.

The specially prepared program will include Miss Inez Horn's children's band and Spanish unit, Lembi's Indians of Rhythm, and a full length western film, "Terror of Tiny Town," featuring Jed Buell's midgets. "Terror of Tiny Town" has been shown only once in the Bay area, but has received acclaim from critics up and down the coast. In true western manner it has cattle rustlers, villains, sheriff, cowboys and cowgirls, (with Shetland ponies for mounts) hero and heroine; and right triumphs over wrong in the end. Five lively tunes are sung in the picture, including "Mr. Jack and

First Interview

The first presidential interview was held when George Washington decided to retire from the presidency. He sent for David C. Claypoole, editor of the Daily Advertiser in Philadelphia. After explaining his plans to Claypoole, he informed him that he had some reflections upon the occasion which he wished to communicate to the people of the United States through the Daily Advertiser. Claypoole was given a copy of the Farewell address, which he published in his paper in the edition of September 19, 1796.

Cottonmouth Moccasin

The cottonmouth moccasin is a dangerously poisonous snake generally of dark chestnut-brown with some darker barring and with yellowish-white stripes on the head and throat. The common name of this snake refers to the white lining of the mouth, which it is said to display before biting. Cottonmouths may attain a length of four feet. They are not aggressive and most cases of snake bite in which they are involved are due to the reptiles being stepped on.

Chameleon's Colors

The chameleon does not arbitrarily imitate the hue of the object on which it rests, nor is the process wholly under its control. The changes are reactions to certain conditions of light and temperature and to various emotional states, such as fear and anger. The physical cause may be traced to two differently colored layers of pigment under control of the nervous system. The best known species is ordinarily a greenish-gray, from which it changes to emerald green or to dull black, sometimes showing reddish or yellowish spots.

That's Cricket

Although ordered by his physician not to leave his bed, Gerald Backhouse hopped out, dashed to the Melbourne, Australia, cricket ground and won his heat in the qualifying mile championship event. He returned to bed, stayed there till noon the next day, then started again and won the final.

COOKIES MAKE CHARMING CHRISTMAS GIFTS
(See Recipes Below)

Holiday Fruit Cakes And Cookies

Half the thrill of Christmas is in the pre-holiday preparations. Making cakes that are crammed with fruit and nuts, baking an endless variety of cookies to be frosted and "trimmed" in true holiday fashion, and packing gift boxes of Christmas confections, is as much fun as the great day itself!

Fruit cakes are a Christmas holiday tradition. The dark cakes do improve with age and should be made as early as possible. They won't mold or dry out if they're properly stored. Wrap the cooled cakes well in wax paper, then store in tightly covered cans. If you like, brandy or wine may be spooned over the cakes at two-week intervals during storage. White fruit cakes make a pretty contrast with the dark, but they dry out rather soon and should be eaten within a few weeks after baking.

Don't forget that fruit cakes, cookies, and small plum puddings make charming Christmas gifts, especially for the friends and relatives who'll be away from home on the holiday.

Christmas Fruit Cake.
(Makes 10 pounds)

- 1½ pounds currants
- 3 pounds seedless raisins
- 1 pound citron
- 1 pound mixed candied fruit
- 1 pound candied pineapple
- 1 pound candied cherries
- 1 cup butter
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 6 eggs
- 4 cups pastry flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 tablespoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon allspice
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup fruit juice or wine

Cut fruits. Cream butter and add sugar. Add well-beaten egg yolks. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add alternately with fruit juice or wine to the butter mixture. Add fruit. Fold in beaten egg whites. Place in baking pans lined with wax paper. Cover pans with cheesecloth and steam 5 hours. Then bake one hour in a slow oven (275 degrees).

Glace Finish for Fruit Cakes.

- 1½ cups water
- ¾ cup granulated sugar
- ¾ ounce Gum Arabic (4½ teaspoons)

Place sugar and water in a saucepan and boil to the thread stage (230 degees). Add Gum Arabic and heat again just to the boiling point.

After fruit cake has been baked, remove from the oven and garnish with nuts and Gum Arabic mixture over the fruit cake in a thin stream, and manipulate as little as possible in order to avoid crystallization of the glace.

Plum Pudding.
(Serves 6)

- ½ cup milk
- 3½ cups soft bread crumbs
- ¼ pound suet (ground)
- ½ cup sugar
- 2 eggs (separated)
- ⅓ cup seedless raisins
- ¾ cup currants
- ¼ pound figs (cut fine)
- ½ cup citron (sliced thin)
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon cloves
- ½ teaspoon mace
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup apple cider

Scald milk and pour over bread crumbs. Cool. Cream ground suet in warm bowl. Add sugar, cream together thoroughly, and add well-beaten egg yolks. Combine these two mixtures. Add cut fruits together with spices and salt. Add cider. Lastly, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into well-greased pudding mold. Cover tightly and steam for 6 hours. Serve with hard sauce.

White Fruit Cake.
(Makes 5¾-pound fruit cake)

- ¾ cup butter
- 2 cups sugar
- 7 eggs (separated)
- 2½ cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup sweet milk
- 1 teaspoon lemon extract
- 1 pound white raisins
- ½ pound figs
- ½ pound blanched almonds
- ¼ pound citron
- ½ pound candied cherries
- ½ pound candied pineapple

Cream butter and add sugar. Separate eggs, beat egg yolks and add. Mix and sift together dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk. Add lemon extract. Cut fruits and add. Blend well and fold in well-beaten egg whites. Place in pans lined with wax paper and bake 1 hour in a very slow oven (275 degrees); then increase heat slightly (300 degrees) and bake 2 hours more.

Chewing Gum Okayed

Chewing gum, pencils, rubber bands, toothpicks, pipestems and other things are restful and useful forms of exercise for office workers, Prof. H. L. Hollingsworth, of Barnard college in New York city reported recently. Experiments made over a four-year period showed that chewing relaxes tension and allows individuals to apply more energy to the tasks at hand.

Service After Hours

A 12 o'clock closing order doesn't daunt the restaurant owners of Amsterdam. When midnight strikes, they close shop, but put automatic vending machines in front of their stores. These retail sandwiches, cake and even ice cream cones.

WALLACE BEERY AT DALY CITY THEATRE IN SUBMARINE PICTURE "THUNDER AFLOAT"

Thrilling story of those little known days of the World War when U-boats attacked Atlantic coast shipping and improvised subchasers with untrained men went out to meet the menace, "Thunder Afloat" brings Wallace Beery to the screen of the Daly City theatre, now playing in one of his best two-fisted roles.

As a tugboat captain who tries to fight the war single-handed after a submarine has sunk his beloved craft, Beery is supported by Chester Morris, who appears as his bitter tugboat rival and later his commanding officer in the navy, and by Virginia Grey, seen as his daughter.

Among the thrilling action sequences are scenes showing the raiding and sinking of Beery's tugboat and string of barges by a U-boat, the torpedoing of a lightship, the disabling of a subchaser and Beery's near death when he goes under water to cut a fouled rudder cable.

As Jon Thorson, untidy captain of a tugboat in a small New England seaport, who joins the United States navy, Beery revels again in the comedy and heart-tugs of such pictures as "Min and Bill" and "Tugboat Annie," in the fighting qualities of "The Champ" and the breath-taking thrills of "Hell Divers."

Companion feature on the new bill is "Here I Am a Stranger," starring Richard Greene and Brenda Joyce.

Virginia Grey and Chester Morr is in "Thunder Afloat"

Gunpowder Plot

The famous gunpowder plot of history occurred when Guy Fawkes entered into a conspiracy to blow up the king, his ministers, and the members of both houses of parliament on November 5, 1605. His plans were discovered after he had placed barrels of gunpowder in the building and prepared them for ignition. He was tried, tortured, and publicly executed in 1606. Parliament set aside November 5 as a day of thanksgiving known as Guy Fawkes day, which continues to be celebrated in some parts of England.

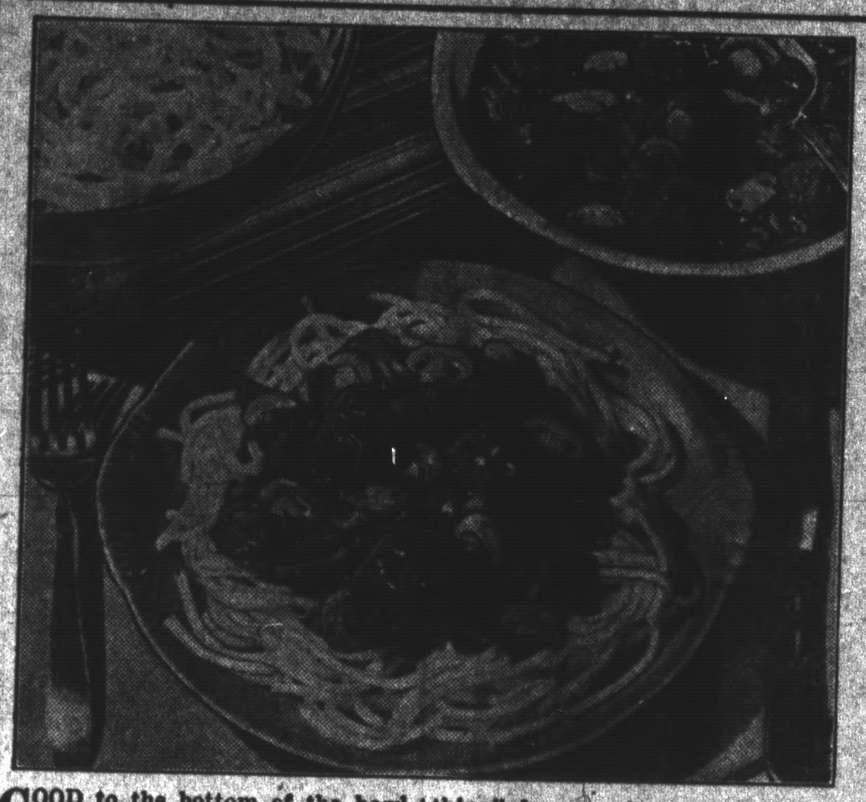
Spaghetti Gets a Brand New "Topper"!



GOOD to the bottom of the bowl, is a hearty one-dish meal of snowy spaghetti, "pint size" meat balls and tender canned mushrooms, all blended together in a new melody of flavors.

Proof that it takes just a bit of imagination to dress up the simplest foods, is this expert combination of flavor, color and texture, in a different version of the familiar meat ball-spaghetti dinner. Lavishly sauced with canned mushrooms and tomatoes over meat balls that are juicy, tender and full-flavored, it's a satisfying dinner, with just the addition of a green salad, light dessert and beverage to complete the menu.

Easy on the cook, the meat balls may be prepared in advance, wrapped in wax paper and kept in the refrigerator. Spaghetti is cooked in a jiffy, and the canned mushrooms —already cooked in their own savory liquid—are right on tap for a delectable sauce in the opening of the can.

For a different dinner, or a hearty party, put this tested recipe on your list of dishes that are "just the thing" for a cool noon or a frosty night.

Hamburger Mushroom Balls With Spaghetti

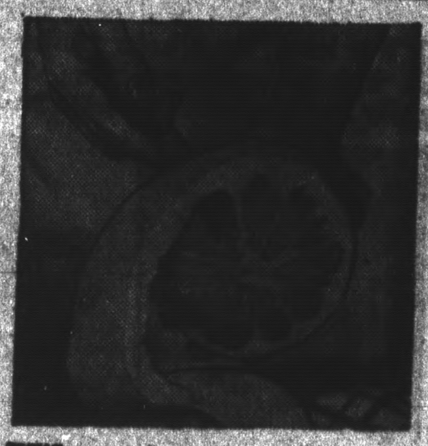
1 lb. ground beef
1 lb. ground veal
4 slices bread, cut 1-inch thick
Salt, pepper, flour
2 onions, chopped fine
1 8-oz. can sliced mushrooms
2 tbsp. shortening
1 qt. canned tomatoes
1 pkg. spaghetti

Mix beef and veal with bread, which has been soaked in water and squeezed dry. Season with salt, pepper and 1 chopped onion. Drain canned muahrooms from liquid and add ¼ cup mushrooms to meat mixture; add sufficient mushroom liquid to moisten meat. Shape into small round balls and roll balls in flour. Heat butter or shortening in skillet, add other onion, chopped, and remaining sliced mushrooms. Brown slightly; add meat balls and brown, turning often. Add tomatoes, and season to taste. Simmer slowly, covered, ½ to ¾ of an hour. Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender; rinse in hot water; drain. Serve mushroom hamburger balls over hot spaghetti, allowing 2 or 3 meat balls for each serving. Sprinkle with grated parmesan cheese, if desired.

Not So Bad

The Melbourne, Australia, government is convinced that traffic and driving instructions offered in a humorous vein are more effective than the usual type. With every driving license now granted is provided a book entitled "Many Happy Returns," containing instructions like the following: "It isn't your fault if all the other road users are completely daft, but it is your fault if you aren't prepared for them to be so."

How To Prepare A Grapefruit



IT'S easy to peel a grapefruit if you do it the correct way. With a sharp knife, cut off rind in a circular sawing motion, cutting deep enough to remove white membrane with the peel.

Perfect sections can be removed from the peeled grapefruit by cutting along the side of each dividing membrane to the core. Sections then can easily be lifted out.

Careful arrangement enhances the appeal of grapefruit in salad. Color contrast is also important and can be supplied by green or red pepper strips; cooked or fresh cranberries; pimiento cheese balls or raw carrot.

The Season Calls for Special

HOLIDAY DESSERTS

Says Dorothy Greig

It is lovely on a keen winter day to enter a kitchen redolent with the warm spiciness of holiday foods. Fruit cakes, little gaily iced cookies, pumpkin and mincemeat pies, steamed fruit puddings and the rest broadcast their goodness in fragrances that are as much a part of the joyous days as Santa Claus.

Date Pudding, cut into squares, is served hot and topped with Tutti Frutti Sauce.

The season puts us in the mood to delight in desserts full bodied with fruits and delectable with cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves. So let us serve and enjoy them.

This aromatic dessert, studded thickly with chopped dates, is a hot pudding-cake topped with foamy tutti-frutti sauce:

Date Pudding with Tutti-Frutti Sauce

1½ cups dates, chopped
1½ cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon baking soda
¾ teaspoons cinnamon
1 tablespoons shortening (½ butter)
¾ cup sugar
1 egg
1 can condensed tomato soup

Sift flour, then measure, add the baking powder, baking soda and cinnamon and sift again. Add two tablespoons of the flour mixture to the chopped dates and mix thoroughly. Cream the shortening, add the sugar gradually and cream well. Then add the beaten egg. Add the flour mixture alternately with the tomato soup. Then stir in the floured dates. Pour into a well-buttered 9 inch square baking pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30-40 minutes.

Tutti-Frutti Sauce

1 egg, separated
½ cup powdered sugar
½ cup whipped cream
½ cup chopped walnut meats
4 maraschino cherries, chopped
2 figs, chopped

Beat the egg white until stiff, then beat in the sugar gradually. Add the egg yolk and continue beating. Fold in the whipped cream at the last and then add the nut meats, cherries and figs.

A dark, spicy cake you will like is:

Spice Loaf Cake

2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg (well beaten)
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon ground cloves
½ teaspoon mace
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup seeded raisins

Sift flour, then measure, add spices, baking soda, and baking powder and sift again. Wash and cut the raisins and roll them in two tablespoons of the flour mixture. Cream the shortening, then add the sugar gradually, and cream together well. Add beaten egg and mix thoroughly. Then add the flour mixture alternately with the tomato soup. Stir until mixture is smooth. Then fold in the raisins which have been combined with some of the flour. Bake in a greased loaf cake pan 8x4 in a moderate oven (350°-375°) for 1 hour.

Cream Icing

2 packages (6 ounces) cream cheese
¾ cup confectioner's sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Cream the cheese until soft, then add the sugar gradually and stir until smooth. Add the lemon juice. Spread this on the cool cake.

Night Owls Launch Jitterbug Contest

There will be rug cutting de luxe when the crowd gets in the groove at the big jitterbug contest which will be launched by the Night Owls at Lovchen Gardens, Saturday, according to the committee in charge. This is the first contest of a series of four, the fourth to be the finals and the presentation of trophies.

The contest is open to all comers and jitterbugs are expected from near and far.

The Night Owls club holds public dancing the first and third Saturday evenings of every month, and the second and fourth Sunday afternoons.

REMEMBER DECEMBER!

This month, which should be one of the happiest of the year, is habitually marred by the highest automobile death toll.

The National Safety Council warns that the December death rate is one-third higher than the average for all months. This month is more than one and a half times as dangerous as the safest month—June.

The reasons? Bad weather, more darkness and the very rush and conviviality of the holiday season.

If you want a Merry Christmas . . . remember December!

Good Wading

Palanga, a Lithuanian coast resort 700 years old which has a tourist population twice the number of its own inhabitants, has one of the safest sandy beaches of the Baltic. You can wade out 90 feet on the sandy ocean floor before the sea reaches the knees. It is a paradise for children's play.

After School Snack For Susie

By Dorothy Greig

MOTHER used to say, "I declare, you children remind me of young robins . . . you just never get filled up."

Of course, the answer is that food must do two things for youngsters: Maintain present health and vitality and provide enough extra to "grow on". The after-school bite while not a regular meal helps along the good work. A bowl of hot soup with crackers; sandwiches and milk; a baked apple and cookies are all simple foods that help fill in the gap between lunch and supper.

The following sandwich is a delicious after-school snack too, especially when accompanied by a glass of tomato juice:

Jack Horner Sandwich

½ cup condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup chicken, ground
¼ cup ham, ground

Combine the cream of mushroom soup, just as it comes from the can, with the ground ham and chicken. Mix well. Spread filling between slices of buttered bread. Makes 6 sandwiches.

Jack of All Trades

Darius L. Martin, who died at Deer Island, N. B., at the age of 91, was a jack of all trades and master of each. His diversified work included undertaking, casket-making, carpentry, cabinet-making, painting, veterinary surgery and farming. He was also a justice of the peace.

Many Prizes For Whist Today

There will be some 25 valuable prizes given away this evening at Masonic temple, when Americans, Inc. hold their big public whist at Masonic temple, with a large turkey heading the list of awards.

Other prizes include canaries, grocery orders and gifts. Playing begins at 8:30 p. m.

Americans, Inc., is an organization sponsiring Americanism, advocating the purchase of toys manufactured in the United States rather than those made in foreign countries.

Shipwrecks Missing

New Zealand has a shipwrecks society and no shipwrecks. It was disclosed by the Shipwrecks Relief society that money is accumulating in the bank for want of disaster. The society obtains its finances from the shipping companies and the harbor boards of this country, all of which make an annual contribution. Year by year the funds grow larger. Now they stand at $80,000 and are safely invested. This has resulted in the society now receiving more than it spends. The position is regarded with satisfaction by local governments, it seems. Mayor Arthur H. Allen of Dunedin has said: "It is gratifying to know this money has been invested in gilt edged securities."

Church as Stable

The churches of Kilkenny in Ireland have been put to various uses in the past. The cathedral has been a stable, the Franciscan Friary a tennis court, the Black Abbey a courthouse, while the parish church has served both as a barracks and a hospital.

Weed Growth

Proof of the tremendous strength of growing weeds was shown at Winnipeg, Manitoba, when a piece of lumber an inch thick, through which had grown a dandelion root, was found in a lumber yard.
